PASTOR'S MESSAGE

Our year-long refugee sponsorship of the Akhbar/Khan families will be over in June and I would like to thank all those who have been a part of it. A special thanks goes out to Pam Kemp whose tenacity kept us all on track and whose hours of service were unsurpassed. She would be the first to tell you that she could not have it done without the help of Sr. Nancy Hurren and the rest of the St. Charles Garnier Refugee Committee.

A special thank you goes out to all those who donated generously to the sponsorship of our two families. Here too there were some outstanding donators, whose names will remain unpublished, but whose generosity surpassed my wildest expectations. Without you we could not have done it.

The fundraisers were also well attend and well supported. Not only did they bring a sense of solidarity around a common concern, they also build a stronger sense of parish. Thank you for all those who got involved. A special thank you to the wonderful Fall supper and the beautiful concert. Who says fundraising cannot add a touch of class to the parish?

With the year winding down, we are in the enviable position of stopping our fundraising efforts. We have more than sufficient funds to see us thru. We will not longer be accepting any further donations to the cause. We ask that you re-direct your generosity to the work of the St. Vincent de Paul Society, Freedom's Door or some other worthy community organization with its eyes and heart of the needs of the poor. Thank you for making it all possible.

Fraternally in Christ,

Fr. Bart

GRIEF TO GRACE—There is help ...

If you have suffered abuse, you may have lived in great isolation and loneliness. You may be keeping shameful secrets. You may be afraid of being judged as unworthy or bad. You may have been called terrible names and have come to believe these as true. But these are not the truth. The truth is that something terrible happened to you and, because of a noble spirit, you have survived. The truth is that you are a child of God, "fearfully and wonderfully made" (Psalm 139). We want you to recover your unique beauty and worth, hidden by something terrible, but now ready to be claimed – the real you.

Please contact us in complete confidence to learn more. We understand it can be difficult to talk about what has happened and that interested individuals may be a long way from deciding to attend a retreat.

Grief to Grace-Reclaiming the Gift of Human Dignity - is a spiritual journey for anyone who has suffered degradation or violation through sexual/psychological abuse, rape, incest, physical or emotional abuse & neglect or other forms of traumatic violation in childhood, adolescence, or as an adult.

Applications are now being accepted for the next Grief to Grace program in Kelowna, May 2-5, 2019.

To register or more information call 250-878-7603 or email g2gkelowna@gmail.com or griefftograce.org

Sometimes we are mocked for our faith, dismissed as ignorant or superstitious; but God is not created in our imagination.

Rather it is God's gift of our imagination and intelligence which allows us to contemplate our own existence, the events of salvation history, and our relationship with God and his Creation, through personal revelation and the illumination of many great thinkers - historians, philosophers, Saints, theologians, and scientists.

Did you know? Catholic priest Georges Lemaître created the Big Bang Theory in 1927 to describe the origins of the universe.

The Bible's Creation Story, though, is not science, or history, but began as a Babylonian creation myth which was changed by the writer to reveal God as one, all-powerful and benevolent Creator of good.

John 20:19-31

It was evening on the day Jesus rose from the dead, and the doors of the house where the disciples had met were locked for fear of the Jews. Jesus came and stood among them and said, "Peace be with you." After he said this, he showed them his hands and his side. Then the disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord. Jesus said to them again, "Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you." When he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit. If you forgive the sins of any, they are forgiven them; if you retain the sins of any, they are retained." But Thomas, who was called the Twin, one of the twelve, was not with them when Jesus came. So the other disciples told him, "We have seen the Lord." But he said to them, "Unless I see the mark of the nails in his hands, and put my finger in the mark of the nails and my hand in his side, I will not believe." After eight days his disciples were again in the house, and Thomas was with them. Although the doors were shut, Jesus came and stood among them and said, "Peace be with you." Then he said to Thomas, "Put your finger here and see my hands. Reach out

Difficulty is not Doubt

Faith is a decision to submit to God. When doubt becomes a decision not to, we sin.

Struggling with a Church teaching is not a sin.

We all struggle to live our faith! Our response to God's love and mercy, though, compels us to do more than disagree. In the garden of Gethsemane (Matthew 26), Jesus shows our response to struggle is prayer, actively seeking and submitting to God's will, and calling on the support of our faith community.

After seeing the Risen Christ, Thomas acclaims,

My Lord and my God!

What a perfect expression of faith!

When we receive the Body and Blood of Christ in the Eucharist, we are touching the Risen Christ who is physically present to us.

In the quiet moments after we have received Communion, we silently offer our thanksgiving for the sacrifice of Jesus and the gift of our salvation. What better way than to offer this simple prayer, "My Lord and my God!"

your hand and put in it my side. Do not doubt but believe." Thomas answered him, "My Lord and my God!" Now Jesus did many other signs in the presence of his disciples, which are not written in this book. But these are written so that you may come to believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that through believing you may have life in his name.

What is Jesus telling me?

Jesus says to Thomas, "Have you believed because you have seen me? Blessed are those who have not seen and yet have come to believe." Does Jesus insist that Thomas believe without seeing and leave him in his doubt; or does Jesus come to him too?

Why do I believe in God?
How did I first receive his gift of faith?

Where can I see or hear God now?
Where does He come to me?

Faith Seeking Understanding

CCC 154. Believing is possible only by grace and the interior helps of the Holy Spirit. But it is no less true that believing is an authentically human act. Trusting in God and cleaving to the truths he has revealed are contrary neither to human freedom nor to human reason ...

CCC 158. "Faith seeks understanding": it is intrinsic to faith that a believer desires to know better the One in whom he has put his faith and to understand better what He has revealed ...

"CCC" refers to a numbered paragraph in the "Catechism of the Catholic Church", an easy-to-read reference about our Catholic faith - a handy book for home, also found online at the Vatican's website www.vatican.va.

A simple and authentic prayer to repeat through the day: Jesus, reveal yourself to me.

A 23-minute invitation. God's answer to what we long for at www.thewildgooseisloose.com. Find a link to this video and our archive of Community Weeklies at www.nelsondiocese.org.

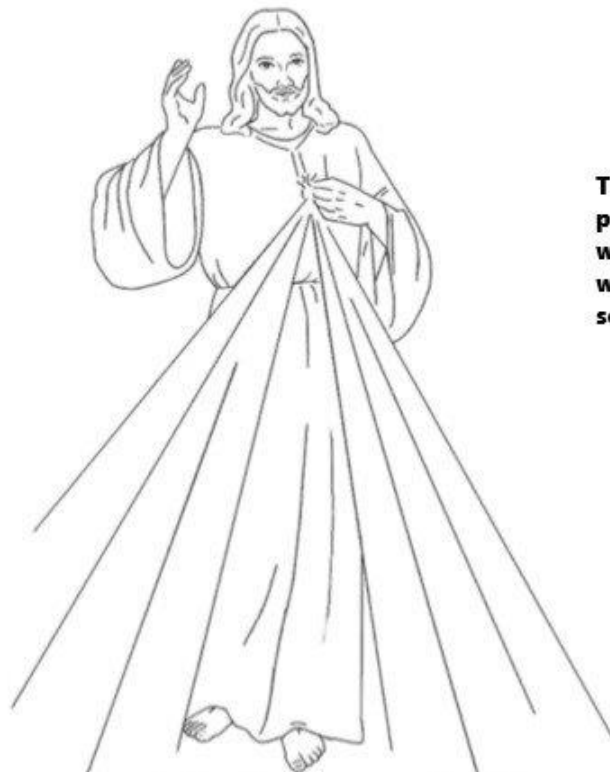

The Divine Mercy

The Sunday after Easter is Divine Mercy Sunday. In 1931, our Lord appeared to St. Faustina in a vision. She saw Jesus clothed in a white garment with his right hand raised in blessing. His left hand was near his heart, from which came two large rays, one red and the other pale. She gazed at the Lord in silence. Her soul filled with awe and great joy.

We pray,

Eternal Father,
I offer You
the Body and Blood, Soul and Divinity
of Your dearly beloved Son,
Our Lord Jesus Christ,
in atonement for our sins
and those of the whole world.

The ray coloured red is the Blood of Jesus, poured out for the life of souls, and reminds us of the sacraments,
especially the Eucharist.

The ray coloured pale blue is the water of Baptism, which makes souls righteous.

Jesus, I trust in you

Try praying the Divine Mercy Chaplet at home. Follow along with this 9-minute video, also found on the Faith Formation page of www.nelsondiocese.org or learn more at www.divinemercy.org.
