PASTOR'S MESSAGE

In his Lenten message Pope Francis takes his cue from the words of Jesus in the Gospel of Matthew: "because of the increase of sin, the love of many will grow cold" (24:12). "In reply to a question of the disciples, Jesus foretells a situation in which the community of believers might well find itself: amid great trials, false prophets would lead people astray and the love that is the core of the Gospel would grow cold in the hearts of many."

False prophets "can appear as 'snake charmers', mesmerizing God's children by momentary pleasures, mistaking them for true happiness!" The dream of wealth, profit, petty interests and self-sufficiency, and the panacea of drugs, disposable relationships and virtual existence "rob people of all that is most precious: dignity, freedom the ability to love." Pope Francis urges us "to look closely, beneath the surface, and to recognize what leaves a good and lasting mark on our hearts."

"In his description of hell, Dante pictures the devil seated on a throne of ice, in frozen and loveless isolation." This cooling of the heart "leads to violence against anyone we think is a threat to our own 'certainties': the unborn child, the elderly and infirm, the migrant, the alien among us ..." "The earth is poisoned by refuse, discarded out of carelessness or for self-interests." Pope Francis also warns us against "self-absorption, warring among ourselves" and our concern "only for appearances".

"But the Church, our Mother and Teacher, along with the often bitter truth, offers us in the Lenten season the soothing remedy of prayer, almsgiving and fasting." In prayer, "we enable our hearts to root out our secret lies and self-deceptions", "to find the consolation God offers". "Almsgiving sets us free from greed and helps us to regard our neighbour as a brother or sister." Fasting "allows us to experience what the destitute and the starving have to endure." "It wakes us up to God ... who alone is capable of satisfying our hunger."

The Pope invites the whole Church to observe a special day of prayer and fasting for peace on Friday, February 23rd, with a special concern for the people of the Democratic Republic of the Congo and South Sudan. He also calls the church to observe "24 hours for the Lord" on Friday, March 9th and Saturday, March 10th encouraging Eucharistic adoration and the availability of Sacramental Confession.

Fraternally in Christ,

Fr. Bart van Roijen

GRIEF TO GRACE

About Grief to Grace

Grief to Grace is a four to five day psychological and spiritual journey providing safety and support for anyone who has suffered degradation or violation through physical, emotional, or sexual abuse or neglect. It is appropriate for those who have endured rape, incest, or other forms or traumatic violation in childhood, adolescences, or as an adult. It is also suitable for those who have suffered abuse by a member of the clergy. This model of care provides therapy for the soul. The program is designed to help you experience the love and support of the suffering body of Christ as you journey through the Pascal mystery of your own life.

This effective healing process combines Living Scripture with journaling, group activity and discussion, therapeutic facilitation, cognitive restructuring and grief work. It is a pilgrimage to discover the love, tenderness, belonging, safety, joy and peace that are often missing from the stories of abuse victims.

Our next program will be held on April 19-22, 2018, at Seton House of Prayer.

Discover the Gospel truth about the Bible. Featuring Scott Hahn, Michael Barber, Brant Pitre and Jesse Romero.

You'll be empowered to discover and share the "Gospel truth" about such important topics as the inspiration of Scripture, the formation of the Biblical canon, the crucial role of the Church's Tradition in Biblical interpretation, and the history of Biblical translations from the time of Christ to today. You'll also learn the truth about the pervasive Protestant charges that the Catholic Church banned and burned the Bible; that the Church chained the Bible and kept it in a dead language in order to keep the Scriptures from the people.

YARN NEEDED—Looking for yarn donations, new/old/unused to make scarves and toques for the homeless. Contact: Theresa Versluys 250-765-1515 or drop yarn at Holy Spirit Church (1260 Neptune Rd) during the weekend mass.

A Life-Changing Study for the Whole Parish!

Week One — Where Are You?

What are we to do with guilt? Should it be ignored, or does it present an opportunity we don't want to miss? The truth is, God seeks us out when we have sinned, not to scold or punish us, but to offer us his healing and his forgiveness. It's certainly true that God is omnipotent and just, but before all else he is our loving, merciful Father.

MEET OUR NEWEST CHALICE FOSTER CHILD

We received news a few weeks back that our foster child Mowingson's family had experienced an improvement in their financial situation and therefore no longer require support. We received a beautiful letter of thanks from them, however it is very long, so a copy is posted on the bulletin board in the foyer.

We would like to introduce our new foster child:
Mike Angelo Marco.

He sent us a letter:

*Dear Sponsor,
How are you? I hope you are in good condition.*

I am Mike Angelo S. Marco. 11 years old and the second among the six children. I am now a grade 5 student and is studying hard. English is my favorite subject. I have the appetite to eat when our viands are fried chicken, egg and sautéed bitter gourd. My favorite fruits are grapes and apple. I like to draw and play basketball together with my friends Vladimer, Jhonmar, Jhon Paul and with my brother John. I dream to become a good lawyer someday that is why I am really studying hard.

I am just sad sometimes because my father has no regular job and most of the times we do not have money and cannot provide for our school needs.

Thank you so much for I now have a sponsor who is willing to extend their help to those children who are in need and we are assured that we will be able to finish our studies. May the Lord bless you always!

Thankfully yours,

Mike Angelo S. Marco
