

nsyilxcən for Everyone

A 4-week beginner language course led by Knowledge Carriers and Elders of the syilx Nation

Thursdays, August 4 – 25
6:30 PM – 7:30 PM
The Laurel Square (outside)
$75 Registration

Would you like to greet students or visitors in nsyilxcən?

Learn about the local Indigenous language and gain a deeper understanding of syilx culture and connection to place. Students will learn some basic vocabulary, pronunciation, greetings and language meaning. This 4-week class is for everyone, regardless of heritage!

Register at KelownaMuseums.ca

For more information, contact Jen Garner at education@kelownamuseums.ca or 250-868-4836